Serving Lenders for 16 Years

Broadlands was founded to provide innovative construction risk management products that meet the challenges facing the construction lender.

Broadlands Financial Group

renders distinguished service to lenders, owners, developers, and contractors by applying financial, construction, and engineering diligence throughout the construction process. Broadlands' services proactively control construction risk and facilitate the forward momentum of construction projects. Broadlands is uniquely equipped to meet the needs of a diverse and increasingly specialized construction marketplace.

"For indeed an abundance of means, or the lack of them, exalts or humbles the power of princes."
-Stubbs' "Charters," 1178AD

The Strength of Broadlands

Broadlands is a construction risk management company rooted in the principals of innovation and creativity. The company is built on three strengths:

- The marriage of applied construction management and financial construction professionals
- A lender client portfolio of over $2 Billion in construction projects
- A platform of proven integrity and transparency since 1990

The Service of Broadlands

The continued prosperity of construction lenders through superior service is Broadlands' goal. The company endeavors to be the best construction risk management provider.

Project Dollars are Compressed Energy

Project funds are treasure that, when released become the energy that drives construction projects forward. The Broadlands Funds Administration Program protects and thoughtfully handles funds by:

- Maintaining discreet, segregated, non-interest bearing accounts
- Controlling and issuing all project funds released from the lender/owner to the contractor
- Ensuring that performing subcontractors are properly paid in a timely fashion
- Tracking and monitoring job costs by line item
- Protecting clients' most treasured asset: their project dollars

Commitment of Broadlands

Broadlands is committed to being the best in class construction risk management service provider.

Our competitiveness, efficiency and timeliness are designed to enhance the professional SBA lender's ability to serve clients in a way that establishes continuing loyalty.
